I haven't had much time to follow the issues with cel. If we had known earlier, we would have written the report much earlier. We completed the entire assessment within 72 hours. In reality, this is usually a 6 to 8 week job. I was tagged into a message a few days ago asking if I would give evidence, at that point I learnt about this issue. I also hope they can get it through. It's a really extensive report.

So was I, although I knew time was crucial, and I also knew they might challenge it. So, I explained every type of possible valuation methodology. I could write another 1000 pages on this topic. No currency can stand against the arguments they were saying. Every currency is...

The flawed report by @elementus.io was filed in court on the 27th less than 24h before the Cel hearing in the 28th which should have been discussed but wasn't, the judge said that there was no price.

They then issue a supplemental report with a market price as the low & high...
